

It is my sincere hope that the FCC not implement any proposal that lessens the effectivity of Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Before the Indiana privacy law went into effect, I was receiving 3-5 phone each day. In the last eleven months, I have received less than 5 phone calls total. The Indiana law is working, and the federal government should not introduce any proposal/law that diminishes the effect of that state legislation.